MONDAY

Today's my first day at Brenton Hospital and I'm feeling pretty sad. I've never been in hospital before and it's my birthday today. I planned to go out and have fun with my friends, but I'm here instead ☹️. I've been here since they brought me in last night after my accident. I can't believe I did it. I was cycling home when a cat ran across the road in front of me. So I had to brake hard. I was going quite fast down a hill and I fell off the bike and hit the road. I was wearing a helmet so my head was OK, but I couldn't move. A woman was walking her dog when she saw me and called an ambulance. They think I've broken my ankle – and my whole body is killing me! The doctors think that I need an operation – help! I've only been here for a few hours and everyone has been really nice, but I want to go home!

TUESDAY

I've just woken up, but I feel really tired. Two new patients came in during the night, and woke me up and after that I couldn't sleep. Hospitals are noisy places. But there's some good news. The doctor has been to see me this morning and I can go home tomorrow! Luckily, I don't need to have an operation. I just need to rest and use crutches for a while. I've also made some friends here. In the next bed to me there's a boy called Blake. He's broken his wrist. He was in a car accident last night. And opposite me there's Liam. He's hurt his leg and he has to lie down all the time. But he still talks a lot! They're really nice guys, but I still can't wait until tomorrow!

WEDNESDAY

I've arrived home finally! It's so good to be here. My ankle still hurts and they've put a big bandage on it, but I'm happy to be in my own bed again. I have to be careful and sleep a lot. They've also given me some painkillers which really help. But I hope that I can celebrate my birthday with all my friends next week. And soon I think I can go back to school – I have never wanted to go to school so much! ☺️

I think the man who is (f) ..... is feeling quite bad. Perhaps his leg (g) .....

- 6 SPEAKING Now look at the second photo and answer the same questions.

4.7. Writing.

- 1 Read these instructions. Then look at the note below. Does the writer follow the instructions? Do they write the note in the correct style?

Your cousin has just passed his driving test. You have gone to his house to see him, but he isn't there. Leave him a note. Include this information:

- congratulate him on his good news
- ask him to contact you when he gets home
- tell him that you have something for him
- arrange to meet him.

Marc,

Congratulations! Josh has just told me about your test. It's great news! Give me a call asap. I've bought you a small present and I'd like to give it to you today. When can I see you?

Let me know.

Jenny

PS Josh says congratulations, too!

- 2 Look at the words in bold in the note. Match with the comments about notes and messages.

- 1 Marc .....
 2 Congratulations! .....
 3 asap PS .....
 4 I've .....

- a We often use common expressions like Great! when we're writing about good news.
 b We often use abbreviations to keep messages short.
 c We usually begin with the person's name without Hi or Dear.
 d We use contractions.

- 3 Write the meanings of these abbreviations.

- 1 eg .....
 2 PS .....
 3 ie .....
 4 asap .....
 5 NB .....
 6 etc. ....

- 4 Rewrite this note to make the style appropriate.

Dear Joe,

It was wonderful news about your team's win. I'd like to congratulate you!

However I was really sorry to hear about your injured knee. I came round to see you, but your mum said you were still at the hospital. Could you call me as soon as possible when you get home. We all want to celebrate.

Please pay special attention. I left the signed football that you lent me in your bedroom. Make sure your brother has not taken it.

Best wishes,

Sam

- 5 Read these instructions and write a note.

You usually go to a French language class with your friend, Sarah. Today you can't go. Leave Sarah a note. Include this information:

- tell her why you can't go (an illness? an accident?)
- ask her to explain to the teacher
- tell her to call you quickly after the lesson to tell you what homework to do
- say thank you and arrange to meet somewhere soon
